

Would you like to be a part of an internationally renowned master program and educated in the academic field of lexicography?

Then what about becoming a student of the elite study program European Master in Lexicography (EMLex), an Erasmus Mundus Joint Master Degree that offers a highly valuable and worldwide unique education? You will be able to study at different European universities, to establish international academic contacts and to increase your professional opportunities tremendously. Graduates of the EMLex are highly qualified international experts in research, education, culture, linguistics and information management.

What about your career opportunities after you have finished the EMLex program?

Lexicographers are able to work e.g. in the following fields:

- data management
- information systems
- communication services
- terminology
- online dictionaries
- language education
- publishing
- research
- translation
- cross-cultural communication

What is the structure of the Erasmus Mundus EMLex master program?

The EMLex is a four-semester program (120 ECTS) which covers the key areas of lexicography and dictionary research.

1st semester: Basic modules conveying the basics of lexicography and linguistics as well as various soft skills.

2nd semester: Advanced modules covering metalexicography, the history of lexicography, learner lexicography, dictionary use, specialized lexicography and terminology, computational lexicography, the use of dictionaries in translation, lexicology and etymology, dictionary design and dictionary writing.

3rd semester: Specialized modules. During this stage, students select a topic for their master thesis and do an internship lasting several weeks.

4th semester: Preparation of the Master's thesis

Funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

At which universities will you be able to study in the EMLex program?

The EMLex partner universities are:

- Poland: Uniwersytet Śląski w Katowicach (Katowice);
- France: Université de Lorraine (Nancy);
- Portugal: Universidade do Minho (Braga);
- Italy: Università degli Studi Roma Tre;
- Spain: Universidade de Santiago de Compostela;
- Germany: Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg & Universität Hildesheim
- Hungary: Károli Gáspár Református Egyetem (Budapest);
- South Africa: Stellenbosch University

Which other institutions are involved in the curriculum?

Our EMLex associated partners are:

- Institut für Deutsche Sprache (Mannheim)
- University of Texas at Austin
- Universidade Federal do Rio Grande do Sul
- Ivane Javakhishvili Tbilisi State University

How, when and where can you apply for the EMLex program?

Requirements:

- You have to make sure that you meet different requirements before applying. Please find them here: <https://www.emlex.phil.fau.eu/erasmus-mundus/information-for-students/>. Be aware that these requirements can differ from one university to another. Please have a look at the respective university websites, which are available here: <https://www.emlex.phil.fau.eu/>.

Application period:

- In general, the application period for every year lasts from 1 November until 1 March of the following year (scholarship applicants), respectively 15 April of the following year (self-funding applicants). Please note the announcements on our website.

Submitting your application:

- If you fulfill all the requirements, please send your complete application to emlex-erasmusmundus@fau.de within the application period.

Where can I get further information about the EMLex program?

- Please follow the link to our website: <https://www.emlex.phil.fau.eu/>.
- You will find all the information you need about the EMLex program there.
- Flyers with further information in German, English, Chinese, Korean, Japanese, Spanish and Portuguese are available here: <https://www.emlex.phil.fau.eu/public-relations/flyer/>.

Flyer layout, text and translation by EMLex office

